On paper, we seem to be a very qualified team member. Why are we not getting promoted or experiencing truly dynamic professional relationships?

Join us as Steve Ludwig, with Ludwig Speaks, LLC, shares with us his thoughts on what makes a teammate go from “very good” to “amazing”. Steve will also share an update on the new APWA Illinois Roads Scholar Program.

Steve is an energetic manager who has been leading and forming teams for over 20 years. His experience in his public and private life, coupled with his unique perspective, provide for an engaging and insightful experience of who we are, and why it matters.
